Project coordinator: Dr. Maria Serena I. Diokno

Concept notes and presentations on the following topics:

- “The Politics of Park and Nation-building in Modern Thailand,” Pinkaew Laungaramsri, Chiang Mai University
- “Teak: From Export Commodity to Nature Conservancy,” Amnuayvit Thitibordin, Chiang Mai University
- “Towards a Greater Understanding and Better Conservation of Natural and Cultural Endowments in Northeastern Thailand,” Tirayoot Bumbud, University of Phayao
- “Heritage Value and its Impact on Tourism in Luang Prabang City, Laos,” Simonekeo Senesathith, National University of Laos
- “Negotiating National Identity through Heritage Conservation: A Malaysian Perspective,” Goh Hsiao Mei, Universiti Sains Malaysia
- “Coral Triangle Initiative: The State, the NGOs, and the Local Communities,” Dedi S. Adhuri, Indonesian Institute of Sciences

As a result, SEASREP proposes to undertake a larger research project titled, “From Nature to Natural Heritage: Law, Nation, and Identity in Southeast Asia,” in Fiscal Year 2017-2018.